

Limiting or decreasing the diversity of broadcast ownership will have the effect of limiting democracy. If all media is owned by one or a few companies, who will investigate when those companies start to shade or manufacture news to promote their corporate interests? There is strength in diversity; that is what has made America so strong in the past. We need to guard the strengths of our way of life. not dilute them.